

Day 18
April 11

Paschatap
And Prayaschit...
Repentance
And Atonement

BE DIVINE...SEE AND SERVE DIVINITY

INVOKE, EVOKE, INVOLVE, EVOLVE

FROM EXTERNAL TEMPORARY TO INTERNAL INFINITY

- When we know and accept ourselves as Mother Sai's child, a celestial rendezvous commences. We feel the flow Divine Love!
- We live every moment to please the Beloved One and none else.
- Consequently, we want to cleanse and purify ourselves to make our Divine Mother happy and gain loving glances from Her.
- True and earnest Paschatap and Prayaschit, Repentance and Atonement...are the two wings that can grant flight, help us soar high...free from the burden of guilt of errors and misdeeds and to a great extent bring relief from karmic consequences.
- Let us pause for a few questions here - what does the human heart feel for Sathya Sai...for His Advent...for His 'Life' on this planet and the colossal amount He took upon Himself? Is it filled with a need for Paschatap and Prayaschit? Does it want to do something? Does it feel responsible in some minute way? Isn't it true, that oft times it's not what we have done...but what we have omitted to do; it's not what we have thought...but what we have forgotten to think; it's not what we say but that which we have overlooked to mention that turns us into a defaulter of sorts?
- So much went into this span of time that led to 24th April 2011...the Divine Decision to take so much upon the Sacred Form, thus, the onus lies upon us all to accord it reverence supreme.

- Let us forgive ourselves and all others...as well as seek forgiveness from those whom we may have hurt, knowingly or unknowingly, through times gone by. A mental intent along with creative visualisation initiates the necessary process...where the glowing frequency of loving forgiveness reaches and touches all, including us.
- Let us continue this practice of forgiveness beyond today and gradually usher in peace for our mind and soul, come –
