

Day 19
April 12

A Candle In The Temple Of Light

BE DIVINE...SEE AND SERVE DIVINITY

INVOKE, EVOKE, INVOLVE, EVOLVE

FROM EXTERNAL TEMPORARY TO INTERNAL INFINITY

- Beyond the physical body, we are Energy, we are Truth, we are Light.
- We are candles glowing brightly in the Temple of Light, dispelling darkness...radiating an exclusive radiance that benefits all.
- Then, what activities shall we participate in today?
- How about being a true friend and giving back to the environment for all that we uninterruptedly receive from it in merry abundance...with no price tag attached ever?
- Respect and reverence for the Sun, Moon and the Stellar Beauties so too, for the Five Elements which make up the human body.
- Participation in River Purification.
- Conserve water, close taps tight, repair leakages.
- Say no to plastic bags. Think about cows, think about the marine life.
- Spread awareness to support Swatchta Campaign. Cocreate a clean ambience in respective localities and cities.
- Adopt a tree, plant saplings, go green, use paper sparingly, reduce, reuse, recycle as much as possible to save money, energy and natural resources.
- What can we do to reduce noise pollution, air pollution, water pollution and soil pollution?
- There is so much we can do to save our planet from further contamination.
- Every little act done with reverence helps, every thought enveloped with love heals.
- Let us know ourselves to be that Glowing Ray of Divinity and constantly radiate our Light with great delight for the benefit of all!
