

Day 24
April 17

How Long, How Long, How Long?

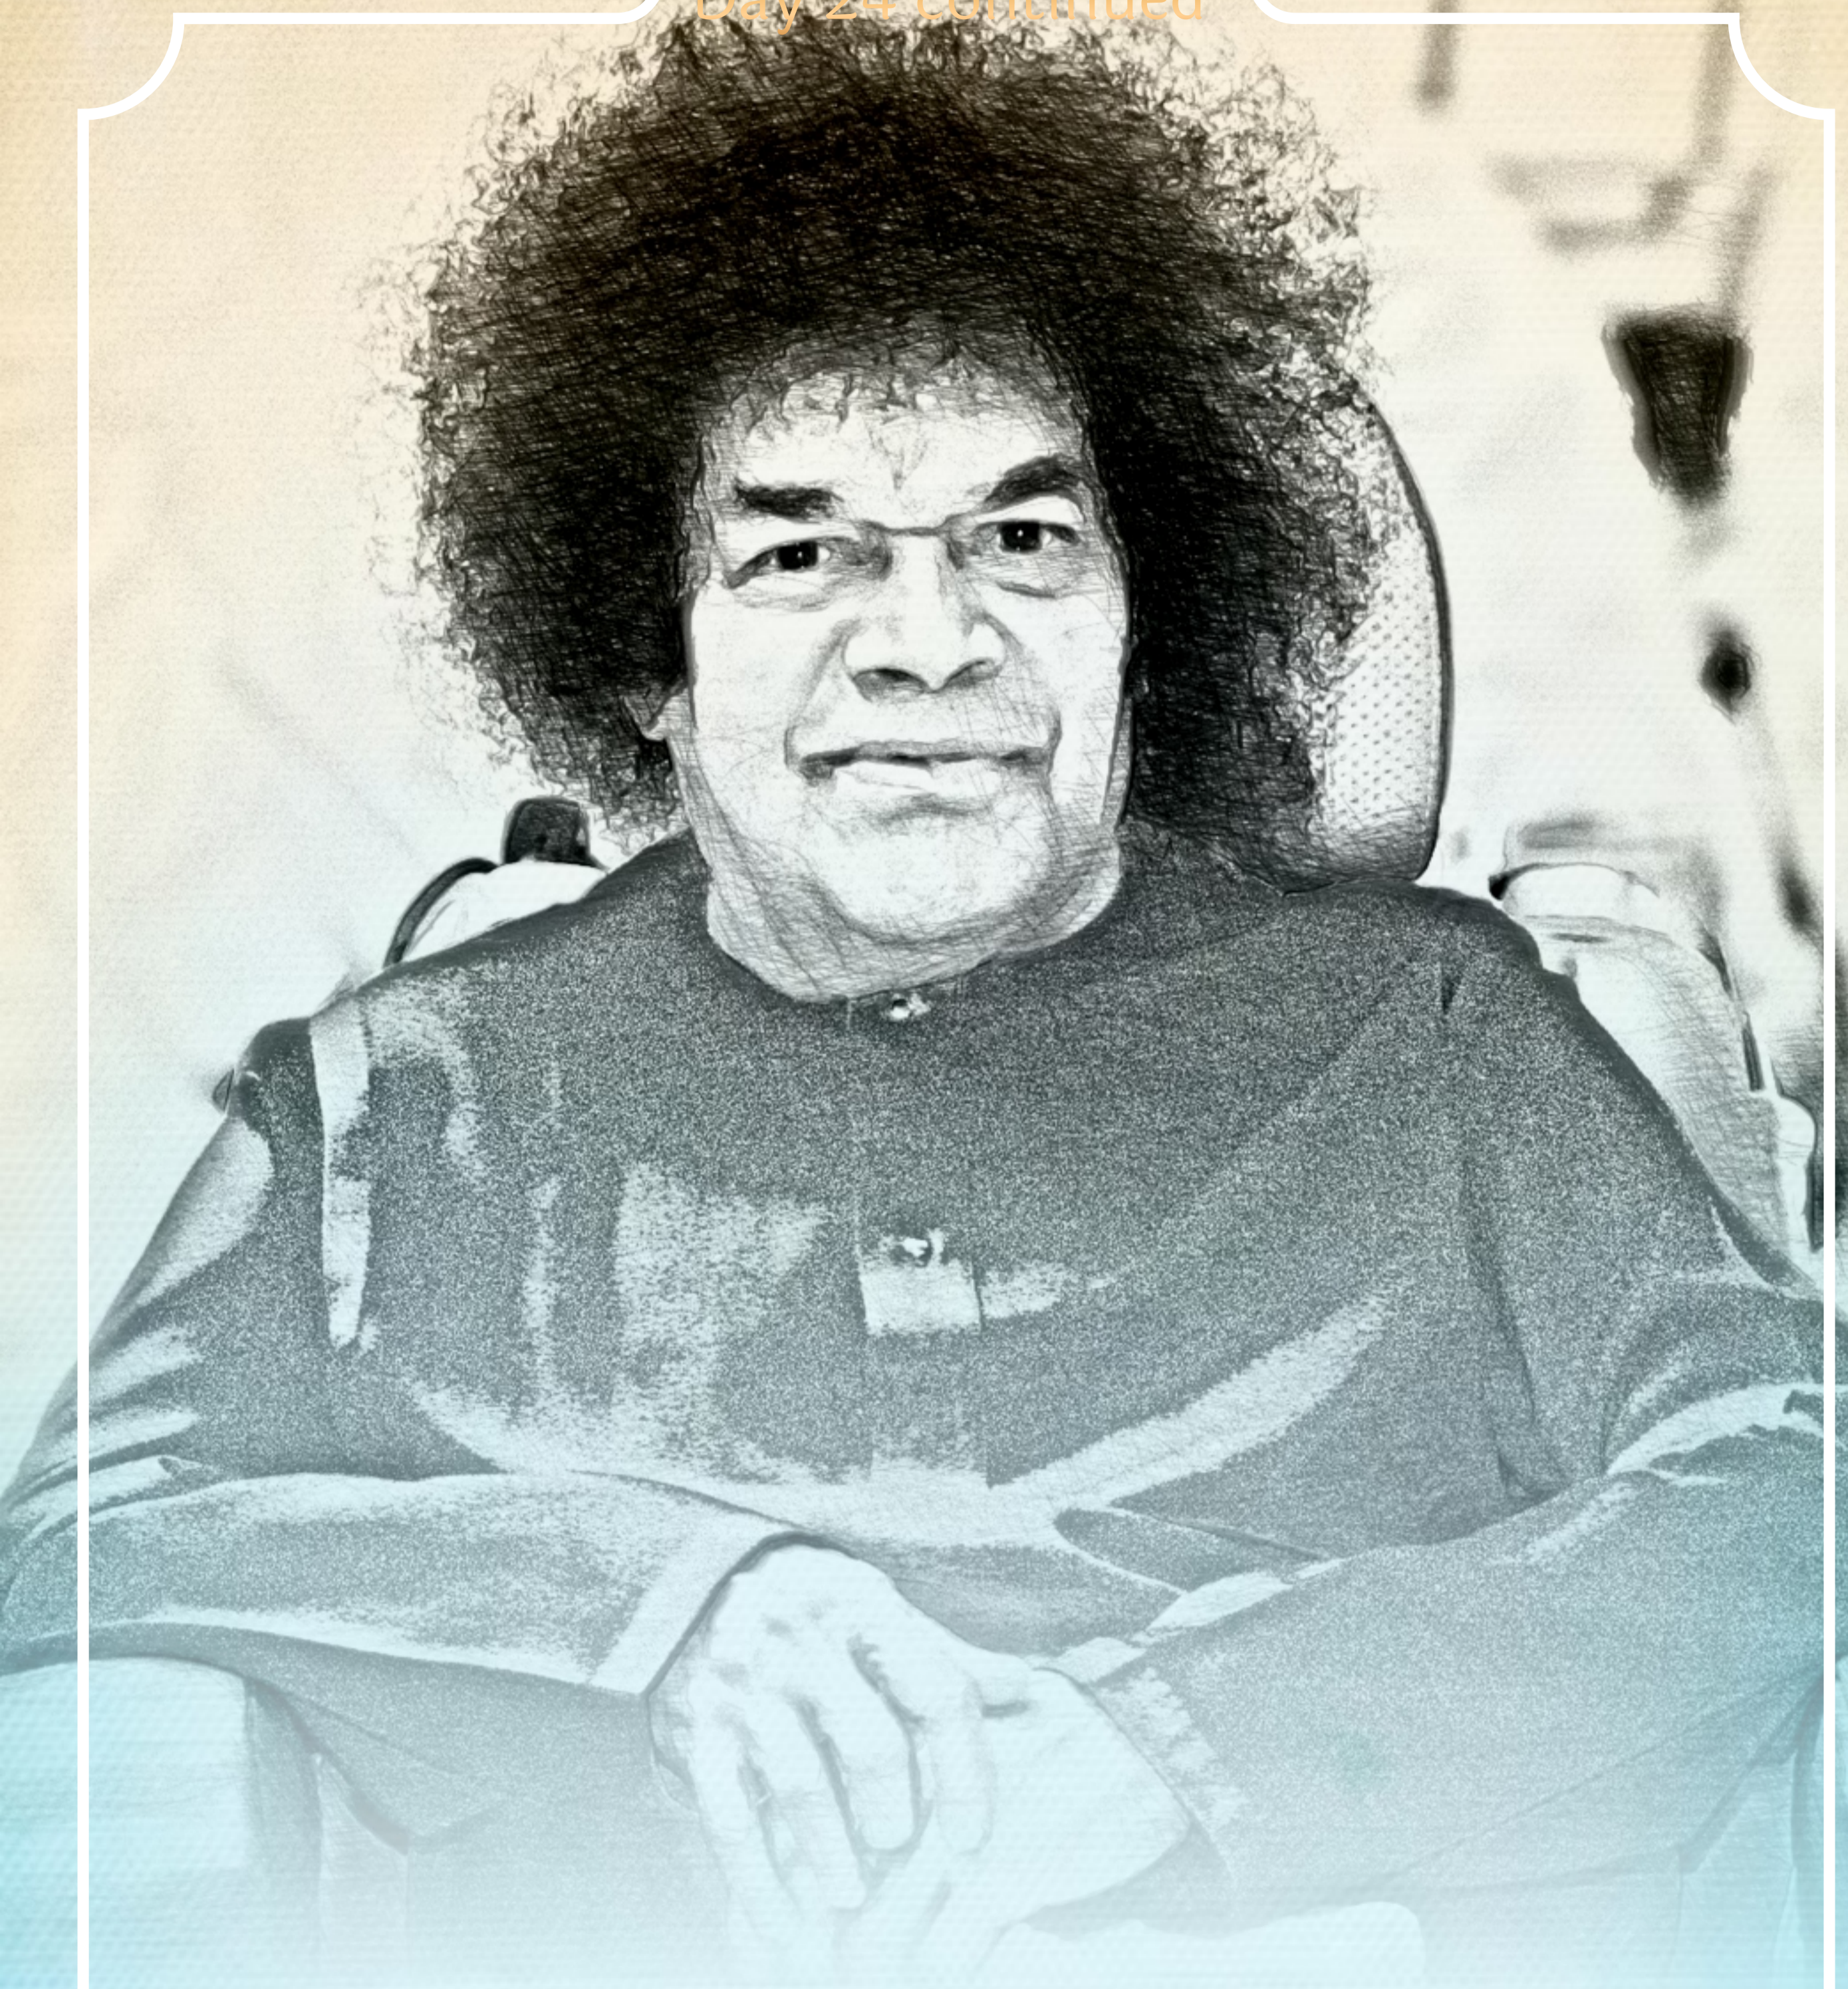

BE DIVINE...SEE AND SERVE DIVINITY

INVOKE, EVOKE, INVOLVE, EVOLVE

FROM EXTERNAL TEMPORARY TO INTERNAL INFINITY

- Today, it's Question Time!
- Let us inspect, introspect, think, rethink our motives, our passions, our intentions, our impulses and emotions, and certainly our obsessions.
- Hasn't Beloved Bhagawan often reminded us that - God obsession is the highest and best obsession?
- How long will money give satisfaction?
- How long will the attractions of the material world keep us enchanted?
- How long will success and fame enrapt us?
- Does our worldly achievements grant lasting empowerment?
- Doesn't power struggle lead to destruction of peace, conflicts, confrontation and agitation within as well as around? Does it ever have the welfare of the society in its agenda?
- Should we not select a goal that creates a journey that is in sync with our Precious Master's Dictums?
- Should we not bring about a balance, a harmonious blend between our material and spiritual voyage by offering it all to the One Supreme from commencement to end?
- Should we not be content with the content of the soul, reenforce our commitment to ceiling on desires?
- Through lifetimes, isn't the Supreme Soul the sole companion of the Individual Atma...the 'forgotten' sole goal of the soul?

- How long, how long, how long are we going to neglect, run, shun or shy away from our true purpose?

If you hanker after power, money and position, you will attain neither peace of mind nor happiness. Obsession for power, status, position and other status symbols is a weakness. - Baba

Dear Ones, let us close our eyes, introspect, correct, then envision that Presence, that Ocean of Love and -
